

I agree with Moveon.org's position concerning Sinclair broadcasting and their forcing of their entire network of stations to broadcast the "documentary" smearing John Kerry. The owners of Sinclair are using the airwaves that are owned by the public to air their own political views at the expense of innocent Americans who don't know how to separate fact from fiction. I plan to boycott as many of the advertisers that purchase time on Sinclair as possible. Sincerely T. Whitelaw.